

BRIDGES PROGRAM APPLICATION

The Bridges Program is a four months intensive drug and alcohol substance abuse day treatment program, followed by eight months of aftercare. The Program is located at 680 Warren Street, in Redwood City, about three blocks from the Hall of Justice.

Phase I - Four Months

This is an all day program. Participants attend classes, workshops, lectures, treatments, and other sessions, Monday through Friday from 8:30 AM until 3:30 PM. Monthly progress reports and monthly court appearances, are part of this phase. A case plan is developed for the participants. The court deals promptly with violations of probation and violations of the program.

Phase II (Part 1) - Four Months

Phase II (Part 1) is an intensive probation period where the participants will transition back to the community, and in most cases, will work full-time. Educational and vocational goals will be pursued, if a participant is not working. Participants will also continue with weekly counseling groups, and monthly court appearances.

Phase II (Part 2) - Four Months

In Phase II (Part 2) participants will be supervised by Adult Probation and will be fully integrated back into the community. Participants will continue with counseling groups, and periodic court appearances.
