

Food Resources in San Mateo County

Search the CIP database at cip.pslinfo.org for information about each agency and for other social service resources.

The nearest community center is the first stop for assistance when an individual does not have money to buy food. These community centers can provide or locate emergency food, clothing, shelter and other services. For referrals for older adults and those with disabilities, call 800-675-TIES (800-675-8437) or a local senior center for information.
