

COUNTY OF SAN MATEO
INTERDEPARTMENTAL CORRESPONDENCE

To: Members, Honorable Board of Supervisors
From: Board of Supervisors Redistricting Subcommittee Members, Supervisor Mark Church and Supervisor Rose Jacobs-Gibson
Subject: Supervisorial Redistricting
Date: August 10, 2001

Based upon the Board's action at the last meeting, the subcommittee is submitting for the Board's consideration, the redistricting plan previously identified as Scenario Three. This proposed plan would move the Redwood Shores area from District Four to District Three. In addition, an area south of Ralston Avenue in Belmont would move from District Three to District Two. Also, adjustments would be made in San Mateo by moving certain areas west of El Camino Real from District Two to District One. As indicated at the last Board meeting, the subcommittee also reexamined the boundary between District Five and District One in the San Bruno area, and is now recommending that the current boundary between those two districts be maintained and that all San Bruno remain in District One.

The subcommittee recommends that the Board, after the public hearing, introduce the ordinance as currently recommended by the subcommittee.
