

KJG

Resolution

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, STATE OF CALIFORNIA
HONOR AND COMMEMORATE THE LIFELONG COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION OF

SHIRLEY EGLINGTON

TEACHER OF THE YEAR SAN MATEO COUNTY 2002

WHEREAS, SHIRLEY EGLINGTON started her teaching career with the San Carlos School District in 1968, and through the years has moved onto Sequoia High School within the same District; and

WHEREAS, SHIRLEY EGLINGTON began teaching in the field of Social Studies and History; and

WHEREAS, SHIRLEY EGLINGTON began teaching as a medium to "engage" students in discussions of social and political issues; and

WHEREAS, SHIRLEY EGLINGTON has had a memorable 33 plus-years of motivating students to excel within themselves, challenging them to achieve their highest potential and providing support for them to succeed; and,

WHEREAS, SHIRLEY EGLINGTON joins the ranks of an outstanding teacher, truly the very basis of our society, the pillar of strength and enlightenment that makes our nation so great.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County takes great pride in extolling SHIRLEY EGLINGTON for her achievement and expresses special gratitude for the molding of youth for our future.

DATED: September 9, 2002

SUPERVISORS:

JERRY HILL, President

MARK CHURCH

MICHAEL D. NEVIN

RICHARD GORDON

ROSE JACOBS GIBSON

Attest: Clerk of the Board