

24 Hours Child Abuse Information and Referral Line to San Mateo County Residents

1. General Description of the RFP	To contract for Child Abuse Prevention/Intervention, "Warm Line" and Family Resource Center Services for FY 2003-05.
2. List Key Evaluation Criteria	Proposals were evaluated based on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Individual or agency qualifications</li> <li>b. Clarity, approach and completeness of program proposal</li> <li>c. Program design and serve objectives</li> <li>d. Consistency with requested services described in this RFP</li> <li>e. Cost effectiveness and budget</li> <li>f. Experience with similar effective and efficient programs.</li> </ul>
3. Where was it advertised?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. In the internet</li> <li>b. A community events and meetings</li> <li>c. All CCAT member were informed</li> <li>d. RFP and Letter of Intent were mailed to 319 agencies in the county that provide children and family services. List of county agencies was provided by the Community and Information Program (CIP)</li> </ul>
4. Total number sent to prospective bidders?	319
5. Number of proposals received?	9
6. Who evaluated the proposals?	a. Child Abuse Council Coordinator Judyt Bardales, Community Liaison for Children and Family Services, San Mateo County Human Services Agency.

6. Who evaluated the proposals?	b. Kathy Baxter, Executive Director, San Francisco Child Abuse Council c. Vanita Bhargavas, Lucile Packard Foundation for Children's Health. d. Allison Barrera, San Mateo County resident and member of Family and Community Advisory Committee. e. Betty Garcia, Santa Clara County Child Abuse Council f. Kris Schell, California Institute of Human Services, Sonoma State University.
7. In alphabetical order, names of proposes (or finalist, if applicable) and allocation	a. Pacific Youth Service Bureau $30,000 per FY for prevention intervention services b. Family Connections $27,000 per FY for prevention intervention services c. Youth and Family Assistance $40,000 per FY for the "Warm Line" services d. Child Abuse Prevention Center $10,600 per FY for Mandated Reporter training e. Child Care Coordinating $35,000 for FY for family resource center services Agencies not recommended for awards: f. Edgewood Center for Children and Families g. Family Service Agency of San Mateo h. Coastside Children's Program i. Boys and Girls of North San Mateo County.