THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, STATE OF CALIFORNIA
RESOLUTION HONORING

MAEVA NEALE

WHEREAS, on this 9th day of January, two thousand and three, MAEVA NEALE is honored for 10 years of dedicated service to the Pescadero Municipal Advisory Council; and

WHEREAS, MAEVA NEALE, chair of the PMAC for the past year, made her initial impact after joining the PMAC in leading the effort to block the sale of a large Bean Hollow property for a sewage disposal site, which remains open space today following a recent purchase by the Peninsula Open Space Trust; and

WHEREAS, MAEVA NEALE continued to focus her energies on community issues despite her own personal health concerns; and

WHEREAS, MAEVA NEALE worked to stop the expansion of greenhouses in central Pescadero and to block diversion and pollution of Pescadero Creek water by the Lemon Hill Nursery; and

WHEREAS, MAEVA NEALE was a force in the development of Pescadero's pocket park and in the cessation of roadside chemical spraying on the South Coast in favor of manual removal of vegetation by the county; and

WHEREAS, MAEVA NEALE made her most significant contribution in bringing about a climate of mutual respect and decreased divisiveness between local factions, keeping everyone focused on the need to work together to find a solution to Pescadero's flooding problems; and

WHEREAS, MAEVA NEALE has always loved Pescadero with the same fervor that most people reserve for their vacation spots, according to her husband John Neale;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County extends their sincere appreciation to MAEVA NEALE, for offering her passion to the Pescadero Municipal Advisory Council for 10 years.
